CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

ANNUAL MEETING IN BOSTON.

Six thousand persons from all parts of the world attended the annual meeting of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston on June 2. The following is a very condensed summary of the annual report read on that occasion:—

Report of Trustees.

A substantial sum was spent for copies of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" and other writings by Mary Baker Eddy, as well as books and periodicals published by the Christian Science Publishing Society, which have been placed in libraries in public libraries located where there are no recognized branches of The Mother Church and to assist in providing literature in Braille. Further substantial sums were paid to 56 churches and societies, to assist them in dedicating, free of debt, buildings erected, purchased, or remodelled for Christian Science Church purposes, an average of more than one per week. In fact, since this trust was established in 1914, more than two and one half million dollars have been given to the branches of The Mother Church to aid them in completely paying for their buildings, and the average for the last fifteen years is a grant to a church each week.

Committee on Publication.

During recent months, much has been said in newspapers and periodicals throughout the world to the effect that the righteous opposition which Christian Scientists have expressed toward unfair statements about Mrs. Eddy has amounted to suppression and boycott. Informed and unprejudiced observers have realized that the criticisms directed against the attitude and actions of Christian Scientists, regarding misrepresentation of their religion and their Leader, have been based on a few instances where zeal exceeded wisdom.

One of the most significant developments of the past year is the increased interest in Christian Science by religionists of other denominations, expressed principally through requests for addresses on the fundamentals of Christian Science. At this time, when thought is greatly concerned with irreligion and lawlessness seeking expression everywhere, and particularly among young people, it is encouraging to note that these requests came in the main from those in charge of groups of young people allied to various religious, charitable, and educational institutions. . . . These meetings have been held in England and in widely separated parts of the United States.

Board of Lectureship.

More than 3,000,000 persons have attended Christian Science lectures during the past year. For many of them the year has indeed been "a season for the change of thought from the material to the spiritual basis of being, as evidenced by healings of serious physical disorders, mental prejudices, lack of employment, and unhappy states of mind." The first lecture for a university organization in Great Britain was delivered in the hall of Balliol College, the college of John Wycliffe at Oxford University. The hall was filled. At a lecture given in Hollywood Bowl, an open-air theatre in Los Angeles, California, the audience numbered 20,000.

Christian Science Publishing Society.

The circulation of all the religious periodicals shows a substantial growth over the previous year. The average daily net paid circulation of the Christian Science Monitor for the six months ending March 28, 1930, was over 135,000, a new high record; that for the month of May was 154,072. Advertisements were received from twenty-six countries outside the United States.

Benevolent Association.

During the past twelve months there have been 2620 guests cared for and abundant testimony has been voluntarily offered by guests and associates alike to the refuge from material beliefs, afforded by the Sanatorium and to the healing of sickness and sorrow experienced there.

The new Pacific Coast sanatorium was opened to visitors on May 15, and over 12,000 took advantage of the opportunity. On May 23 the sanatorium was opened for guests, and on Sunday, May 27, the first Church services were held in the auditorium. The cost of the site, the building, the grounds and furnishings was met entirely by voluntary contributions of Christian Science Churches and Societies and Christian Science friends from all parts of the world.

Branches and Practitioners.

Eight-two churches and societies have been added to The Mother Church since our last Annual Meeting. Fifty of these are in the United States; four in Canada, twenty-one in Europe, two in Africa and five in Australasia. Five new university organizations have been formed, four being in the United States, and one in Cambridge University, England. The Mother Church has 2,451 branch churches and societies and thirty-nine university organizations. The Christian Science Board of Directors has accepted applications for cards in the Journal from 757 practitioners and 100 nurses. These workers are well distributed throughout the field.

Incidents of Christian Science Healing.

The following incident of Christian Science healing from Holland, is one of several which were read to the meeting: More than seven years ago, when in the East Indies, I was very ill, suffering from an extraordinary sort of dizziness. Four physicians, of whom two were specialists, declared they had never come across such a form in all their practice. Christian Science came my way, and by a single present treatment a skull operation was made unnecessary. I was healed of insomnia at the same time. (The practitioner explained to me the glorious truth about God, the indissoluble bond between God and His creation. In connection with "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, the Bible has become my daily guide. I am grateful for having found Christian Science not only in Java but also in Holland; for I have lived here the last seven years notwithstanding the doctor's verdict that I could not do so. I was healed practically instantaneously from trembling hands, which incapacitated me from using spoon and fork, from rheumatism, from inflammation in one ear, and from chronic constipation.")

Relief Work.

During the year the relief work in the Government hospital for disabled veterans at Otten, North Carolina, has continued and splendid reports have been received from those benefited. Expenditures from the fund have been sent to those suffering from the hurricanes in Florida, the floods in Vermont, Kansas and the Mississippi Valley, and some relief work has continued in Germany. Recently a contribution was made to China Child Welfare, Inc. A contribution was sent to aid the people rendered homeless as a result of the flood in the northern districts of Tasmania. This last donation supplemented donations raised by Christian Science organizations in Australia and Tasmania.

HUMOUR: ANCIENT AND MODERN.

Ned: "I understand Harvey writes for a living."
Red: "Yeah? Where does his wife work?"

"Daddy, can you speak Russian?"
"No, Jimmie, I cannot."
"It's a good thing we don't live in Russia, isn't it?"

First Collegian: "I've given the matter much thought and have decided not to join a fraternity."
Second Ditto: "Shake! I didn't get an invitation either."

"How has your potato crop turned out, old chap?" asked one ardent amateur gardener of his neighbour.

"Splendid, old man," replied the other; "some are as big as marbles, some as big as peas, and, of course, quite a lot of little ones."

Prison Chaplain (to prisoner about to be discharged): "Now, my man, try to remember what I said in my sermon last Sunday, and make up your mind never to return to this place."

Prisoner (deeply moved): "Guv'nor, no man who ever heard you preach would want to come back here again."

A Negro girl came to a bank regularly to draw her weekly pay. She could not read or write, so she made an X on the receipt. Then, one day, she made a circle. "What's the matter, Mandy? Why don't you make an X as usual?" asked the cashier.

"Why," Mandy exclaimed, "Ah done got married yesterday and changed mah name."

A street car inspector was watching the work of the new conductor. "Here, Foley," he said, "how is this? You have ten passengers, and only nine fares have been rung up."

"Is that so?" asked Foley. Then, turning to his passengers, he yelled: "There's wan too many on this car. Git out, one of yez."

Boy: "I'm through, sir."
Boss: "Through what?"
"Through with the errand."
"What errand?"
"I don't remember, sir."
"Then do it over again!"

Mother: "You had better stay in the yard, Willie. The pilots might take you away in their air-planes."

Willie: "Oh, there's no danger, mama, they never get so low down as that."

Captain Sniff: "Sergeant Bjones, don't you know you are exposing yourself to an imaginary enemy over there 300 yards away?"
Sergeant Bjones: "Yes, sir, but I am standing behind an imaginary rock 20 feet high."

I have a little dog. He's very intellectual. And to describe his culture. My words are ineffectual. When he gets in the library. Quite carefully he scours it. And when he finds a book that suits His taste, why, he devours it.

Elderly Lady (meeting sailor on country road in 1940): "Sir, do you know my son Jack in the Navy?"
Sailor: "Which ship is he serving in?"
Lady: "What! Be there two?"

Two men were gazing at a new building that was being erected in a country lane.
"What is it to be?" asked one of them.

"Well," said the other, "if I can get a tenant for it it is a bungalow; if I can't it's a barn."

Johnny: "Daddy, what does 'trans' mean?"
Daddy: "Please don't bother me; I'm reading."
Johnny: "Well, but please tell me what 'transatlantic' means."
Daddy (shortly): "Across the Atlantic."
Johnny: "Well, does 'transparent' mean a cross parent?"

THE SILVER SCREEN.

TWINKLING STARS.

There seems to be a sort of rivalry between movie producers as to who can get the biggest crowd of the most brilliant stars on a foot of film. The Fox Movietone are showing at the Queen's Theatre to-day a picture called "Happy Days," in which it is claimed one hundred entertainers from Broadway and Hollywood appear. We quite believe it; though not attempting to keep a record of the score. But whether there were 99 or 101 entertainers seen on the screen does not make any difference really; there is a whole lot of amusing scenes and songs, starting with the simplicity of a minstrel-show and working up to sensational spectacular scenes with herds of sixty chorus-girls.

"Happy Days" is a pot-pourri of songs and dances rendered and executed by some of the cleverest entertainers of the day. Humour, melody, and graceful beauty are the outstanding features of the film, and the mix are most skillfully blended. The picture is showing at the Queen's until Thursday night.

"THE COCOANUTS" AT THE CENTRAL

"The Cocoanuts" is drawing crowded houses at the Central Theatre. "The Cocoanuts" is funny if you like the amazing Marx Brothers and their broad comedy. Without doubt they keep most people laughing most of the time. Two groups of girls appear in the chorus—the Gamby-Hale girls and the Allan K. Foster girls—and they do some very clever dances. There is a running fire of witty dialogue in this film which is an entertainment in itself, apart from the songs and dances.

WAGNER LIFE SECRETS.

GERMAN EXPERT AND U.S. AUTHORS.

Richard Wagner, storm centre of the music world during his lifetime, has again become a storm centre of the literary world as a result of the publication by Hurn and Root, two American authors, of a book entitled "The Truth about Wagner."

This book casts grave reflections on the characters of Wagner, of his first wife, Minna Wagner, and his second wife Cosima Wagner, who died recently.

The authors asserted that they based their work on the famous "Burrill Collection" of Wagner documents, which has rested for 30 years in a safe in London, and is shortly to be published in England and Germany.

Dr. Julius Kapp, dramatist of the Berlin State Theatres, and a well-known Wagner expert, now asserts in interviews in the German Press that he has photographic copies of all the Wagner documents in the Burrill collection. The present owner of the collection has charged him with preparing its German publication.

Dr. Kapp alleges that the book of Hurn and Root is a literary "bluff."

All the supposedly new allegations about Wagner and his first and second wife, he asserts, are pure inventions, while the rest has been taken from Dr. Kapp's own and other books about Wagner.

Dr. Kapp further alleges that Hurn and Root never saw the Burrill collection, and therefore cannot have used it as a basis of their publication.

The sentence, "I am the son of Ludwig Geyer," which Hurn and Root cite as being the first sentence of Wagner's secret autobiography, is false.

That Geyer was Wagner's step-father, and that the suspicion that he might have been Wagner's natural father as well has been disproved.

The assertion of Hurn and Root that Cosima Wagner had the fourth part of Wagner's autobiography, and had rewritten it herself, is likewise wrong, because Wagner wrote the fourth part himself in 1881, and dedicated it to Franz List.

Dr. Kapp says List's copy is in his possession.

Dr. Kapp further reveals that Wagner's first wife, forced him to marry her, is disproved by the 150 letters which Wagner wrote to her entreating her to marry him, while she herself warned him against such a marriage.

These letters are part of the Burrill collection about to be published.

C.I.D. GIRLS IN PARIS FROCKS.

"YARD" TO HAVE WOMEN
DETECTIVES.

Very feminine detectives are to be employed by Scotland Yard. They will mix with all kinds of people, from the crowds at weddings to aliens engaged in dope and white slave traffic.

A criminal who is on the lookout for the usual type of plain-clothes detective may find himself arrested by a smartly-dressed young woman wearing the very latest in Paris hats.

Miss Peto, who was recently put in charge of the Women Police at Scotland Yard, intends to make a big change.

Instead of the frigidly-dressed policewoman of to-day, she envisages a corps of smart, well-educated young women working in close co-operation with the Criminal Investigation Department at the Yard.

Women will be trained as motor-drivers and mechanics, and will be engaged on "special service" with the Flying Squad.

According to the current issue of the Police Review, Miss Peto wants to secure women of good education for the work, and she offers them a career which is "really worth while."

After selection the women will attend a college where emphasis will be placed on the correct methods of obtaining information to assist the C.I.D.

Before leaving the college to take up detective duties they will be required to pass an examination equal to Matriculation.

"Special attention," it is stated in the Police Review, "will be given to training in modern languages and to certain branches of detective work."

"Observation work in relation to aliens suspected of being engaged in white slave and dope traffic is mentioned in this connection, and shadow work in tracking confidence tricksters and fashionable thieves at functions."

"I always had got pains in my arms and legs, and I suffered from severe nervous headaches, but I do not have them now, thanks to Phosferine. At first I thought I should never be well again, but when I heard that my brother was taking Phosferine I thought I would try it, and in the first two or three days I began to feel better, and I sleep better, which is a blessing at my age. I am 71 and people say I am a wonder for my age. I am still healthy and well, and am able to carry out my household duties, and in addition I have also been nursing and looking after an old gentleman, besides shopping which means a mile and a half of walking daily—I could not have done it without the help of Phosferine, as the influenza left me feeling very weak and broken in health. I find so many people, when they get on in years, think nothing will do them good, but I say to them 'do not think that, take Phosferine, and what it has done for me it can do for you.' I advise others to take Phosferine and guard against nerve pains and influenza, etc., and anyone who has suffered that way should take it to build themselves up again." CLEVER DIVING FEAT AT V.R.C.

BUDDING ACROBAT GIVES BRILLIANT EXHIBITION.

INTERESTING EVENT FOR LADIES IN PYJAMAS.

[By "WATERMAN."]

There was a strong muster of swimming enthusiasts at the V.R.C. on Saturday when the second night fete of the season was held. The sport commenced at 9.30 p.m. and for two hours there was an unceasing programme of entertainment which must have been highly enjoyed by all.

THE PROGRAMME.

The first event on the programme was a members' race over fifty yards. Owing to the large entry this was divided into five heats, but as a few of those who entered did not compete four heats were eventually decided upon.

The first heat was rather tame as Soares, who finished in 30.2 seconds, was a bit too good for the others. The second heat saw some fine swimming, S. V. Gittens conceding handicaps to all candidates, and coming home first in the very fast time of 27 seconds. The third heat was a virtual walk-over for Silva Nello, who won in effortless fashion, and L. Rosa Pereira, the popular Portuguese swimmer, who is better known for his efforts to win the Harbour Race in recent years, won the fourth heat.

Four Styles.

Only four entrants could be found for the four-style event. Over the first length (breast stroke) H. M. Remedios led from T. Paget and W. Lawrence, and the second length saw Remedios forge further ahead, his side stroke being just a shade better than Paget's and Lawrence's. In the third length, however, Lawrence picked up all he had conceded as his back stroke overshadowed those of his competitors. The final saw Lawrence winning easily, "crawling" home in 78 seconds. Paget and Remedios made a close race of it, and the former just got into second place. His official time was 77 seconds, though 80 would have been nearer the mark considering that Lawrence won by a good five yards.

Ladies' Breast Strokes.

Five candidates started here, and Miss G. Dalziel showed herself an adept in this form of swimming. She won handsomely from the others. The great thing about Miss Dalziel was the manner in which she allowed her strokes to be completed each time instead of hurrying over them in haphazard fashion. This was the general fault with the rest of the competitors. "More haste less speed" is absolutely true in breast strokes.

Swimming Under Water.

This event was very interesting, and some very good swimming was seen. The judges, however, rather spoiled things by not clearly announcing what was to be done, with the result that several who actually touched the end of the tank first were beaten. E. D. da Rosa qualified for the final in the first heat; W. Foraita, L. A. da Rosa, E. Lawrence and L. Rosa Pereira were the other finalists.

The final, which was won by Foraita, was a thrilling race. Foraita, however, gave one the suspicion that he had only swum 34 yards and finished the last yard on the surface. L. Rosa Pereira and da Rosa finished under water at the same moment as Foraita, but being under water, they were about two-fifths of a second behind when they got to the top.

Diving Exhibition.

This was certainly the most delightful feature of the night's entertainment. Ed. da Rosa is certainly an accomplished diver and so mean acrobat. His exhibitions from which he provided eight different kinds of diving was a treat to watch and a study to those who are striving to learn the intricacies of spring-board diving. From the platform da Rosa was equally versatile, his back somersault and false header being the outstanding items.

Members' Handicap Final.

After the diving exhibition the members swam their final over fifty yards. Gittens, after his excellent display in the heats, was watched by all eyes, but he could not repeat his brilliant swim. L. Soares showed clearly that the handicappers were all wrong by winning this event in 29.2 seconds.

Midnight Race.

Had Mrs. Grundy been at the night fete, she would have been shocked beyond words to see five pretty girls in pyjamas at one end of the bath. These were partnered by five men, who took a lighted candle, passed to them—no mean task in view of a strong draught prevailing at the time of the race—and the ladies had to swim back in their pyjamas to the finishing point. The lights were all turned out and the race proved to be very thrilling. Miss E. M. Booth, who was partnered by H. M. Remedios, winning the event.

Mixed Team Race.

Johnstone, Gittens and Foraita captained three mixed teams consisting of two ladies and six gentlemen.

men aside. Good captaincy on the part of Gittens won his team the race. While Johnstone and Foraita were content to let the ladies in their teams start off at an early stage, Gittens concentrated on getting a long lead by sending out his men swimmers first. The result was that his team was morally encouraged, and they never lost their lead, though at one time they were very close to being passed.

Water Polo.

The entertainment was very appropriately brought to an end by an interesting water polo game between the Services and the Chinese. Though the latter won by three goals to one, there was not such a big difference between the sides as the score might suggest. In fact the game was very even, the only drawback being the defence of the Service team. The Chinese broke through on several occasions and made full use of their opportunities, but the same could not be said of the Services' forwards, who seemed lost in front of the goal.

Music and Dancing.

After the sports dancing was carried on in spite of the heat, the Lyric Orchestra supplying very good music; the prize distribution also took place.

Results.

The full results were:—
50 yards Members' Handicap.—1. L. A. Soares; 2. L. Rosa Pereira. Time: 29.2/3 secs.

RESCUE AT SEA.

ANNAMITES BROUGHT TO HONG KONG.

Eighteen Annamites, including a woman, were rescued on the high seas by the s.s. Kiangsu and brought to the Colony yesterday. They were handed over to the Water Police.

Capt. McMillan, the master, stated in his report that at 3.45 p.m. last Tuesday the vessel was in Lat. 14.13 N. and 111.40 E. when a junk was sighted in the distance with people on it waving for assistance. The vessel went alongside, and by 5 o'clock all the people were transferred. (The ship then continued her voyage to Hong Kong.)

It is believed that the junk was wrecked during the recent typhoon, and that the 18 persons were the total number on board at the time.

REPORTED THEFTS.

CHINESE LOSES A SUM OF $777.

Several thefts were reported to the police during the week-end. Li Ngai Chau, residing at the Ping on Boarding House in Connaught Road Central reported to the police that at 4 p.m. on Saturday, while he was boarding the s.s. Tai Po Shek, some person stole from his jacket pocket a sum of $377 in bank notes. One was a $500 note, another of $100 and a third was a $50 note.

European's Losses.

Mr. Spiers, engineer on the s.s. Ixion, reported the loss of a silver watch and bracelet valued at $20. The article was stolen from a drawer in his cabin early on Saturday morning.

Mr. E. H. Fantham, wharfinger, Kowloon Godowns, was relieved of $20 on Saturday between 2 and 4 p.m. The money was taken from a wallet lying in his coat which was hung up in the office.

Lost a Brooch?

On Saturday a gold brooch, bearing no particular identification marks, was brought to the Water Police Station. It was reported by the person who brought the brooch that it was found on the roadway near St. Mary's School, Kimberley Road. The brooch is being held by the police pending application by the lawful owner.

ON MONDAYS

"He can live without love,
What is passion but pining?
But civilised man cannot live without dining."
Owen Meredith.

He used to be rude about the cold joint and allude to it as "Ichabod" and poke the tomatoes about to find one that wasn't squashy, and leave the apple tart's pastry on his plate and talk about heavy handed cooks and . . .

Well you know how things used to be on Mondays . . . till you thought of that shattering retort, "All right, you buy me a Frigidaire then!"

Of course, he did in the end—and now Monday sees Ichabod metamorphosed into vol-au-vent, since cook's pastry has miraculously acquired a flaky lightness (only because he chills it in Frigidaire before popping it in the oven), and the salad always seems fresh picked, it's so cool and crisp, and everybody wants to know the secret of your household marketing because they've "never eaten such tender steak, my dear" (which, of course, is due to Frigidaire again), and he swears Frigidaire would be worth twice its price if only for the difference it makes to beer, and . . .

we could go on for hours like this, but how about your having a Frigidaire of your own? The very latest models, fitted with Hydrator and Cold Control that produces frozen sweets, ice creams in a jiffy, can be installed in your kitchen for a very small sum. Fully automatic. Dead silent. Costs only a few cents a week to run. Start seeing about yours by asking

VARSITY CRICKET AT LORD'S.

TO-DAY'S GREAT MATCH.

NOTES ON PLAYERS: BY R. ABBIT.

Today, at Lord's, begins the ninety-second encounter between Oxford and Cambridge. So far the Light Blues, who have won five, drawn four and lost two of these matches since the war, have to their credit forty-three wins, against Oxford's thirty-six, while only twelve have been drawn. At first glance in these days, the small proportion of draws may seem surprising, but the match is a "needle" one, and sides which can rattle up three and four hundred runs against County sides with quite strong bowling collars ignominiously on the historic turf of Lord's. Indeed from 1897 to 1899, seventy-one years, there were only three draws, in 1897, 1894, and 1898. There were three draws running in 1899, 1900 and 1901. The remaining six took place in 1904, 1909, 1920, 1925 and 1928. There were, of course, no games from 1915-1918 inclusive.

To appear at Lord's is the dream of every cricketer who is fortunate enough to go up to either Varsity. Of course, though many of England's finest cricketers have started their brilliant careers in the Varsity match, it by no means follows that a blue becomes a county cricketer. Leisure, especially in these days, is lacking for the arduous round of a County season, while many a man may scrape a blue and fail to produce county form later. But you will find most of them in after years, rattling up their fifties and sixties in good Club cricket, which, after all, must be very much more enjoyable.

What We Know—and What We Do Not.

In attempting to review the prospective strength of the rivals, it must be remembered that out here one is very largely making bricks without straw. One has the criticism of a few early matches in the cricket, and it has been possible to secure the bare scores and teams up to the 11th of June, when Cambridge were beaten by the Australians, and Oxford drew with the Free Foresters. After that one can but conjecture from cables, which only give individual names after a man has scored fifty or more, or taken at least four or five wickets, what team is playing. However, by a careful analysis of what information is available, it is possible to form a general idea of what is happening, and to guess pretty closely at the composition of the teams—always with the inevitable Widen beside one!

Oxford.

In the early part of this year it appeared probable that Kingsley, the Oxford skipper, would have available all the side that did duty at Lord's in 1929, with the exception of A. T. Barber, who led them then. R. W. Skene, a left-handed bat and bowler, who got his blue in 1929 but was left out last year, was also available. But since then it has transpired that E. T. Benson, the wicket-keeper (who with Hill-Wood) saved the match so finely in 1929) would not be in residence, and also that the secretary, P. J. Brett, a Winchester man like his skipper, would not be up owing to a severe illness. As he had last year an average of 40.83 for Oxford he was a serious loss. But the Dark Blues are so strong at present that it may have made things easier for the captain who always has great difficulty in trying out his likely candidates.

Their Record to Date.

So far Oxford have played ten matches. They have drawn with Kent, Notts, Leicester, Yorkshire, Surrey, and the Free Foresters—the latter with a very strong side out. They lost to Gloucester by an innings and ten runs (on the occasion when D. N. Moore, a freshman, made 208 out of a total of 627 for two wickets against his University), and to the Australians by an innings and 188 runs. Their two successes have been against Glamorgan, by 151 runs, and a fair M.C.C. team by seven wickets. It is clear that they have a tremendously powerful batting side, and bowling above the average—at least, above the usual Varsity average. It is surprising that they have not done better, especially now A. M. Crawley, who was reported to be working hard, has started to play in the last three matches. It appears, however, that the fielding was the weak spot. The ground fielding was poor, and catch after catch was being put down at the beginning of them. This was their great fault last year, and unless they improve Cambridge will probably get away with another draw.

The Oxford Probables.

In view of the fact that no less than twenty-one cricketers had appeared for Oxford up to the Free Foresters match about June 10, it would be tedious to deal with them all. It will be easier to put down a list of probabilities. Personally, I fancy the following gentlemen in the order given—P. G. T. Kingsley (Winchester and New College)

(captain), the Nawab of Patnaudi (Chiefs' College, Lahore and Balliol), N. M. Ford (Harrow and Oriel), A. M. Crawley (Harrow and Trinity), H. M. Garland-Wells (St. Paul's and Pembroke), C. K. Hill-Wood (Eton (T) and Christchurch), D. N. Moore (Shrewsbury and Queen's), I. A. R. Peebles (Glasgow Academy and B.N.C.), A. Bellville (S. Africa and Trinity), J. F. N. Mayhew (Eton and B.N.C.), I. Akers Douglas (Eton and Christchurch), and J. H. Levinson (Eton and Christchurch).

These twelve provide a tremendous array of talent, and one imagines Kingsley's difficulty will be to know whom to leave out. The first six in the list are all Old Blues. The next three are Freshers. Mayhew and Akers Douglas are in their second year, and Levinson is also a Freshie, a fast bowler. As he is no bat I rather imagine that he will be dropped as C. K. Hill-Wood is a fast left-hander. Otherwise it is difficult to guess. Garland-Wells has not done very much this year, but he is a born number seven batsman and can bowl more than a bit, while his ripe experience of Lord's will tell in his favour. Akers Douglas has a tremendous reputation as a school bat in 1929, but quite failed in 1929 to maintain his form, and did not get his Blue. As he is reported to be a bad catch, he may be left out if Kingsley decides that he wants another fast bowler at Lord's.

Three Brilliant Freshers.

There is little doubt of the inclusion of the other three Freshmen. Ian Peebles played for Middlesex all 1929, and took 123 wickets for 19.20 each in first-class cricket. He is twenty-two and a half, just four years older than the usual undergraduate who goes up from school. (A Cambridge man was heard to enquire the other day if it was true that Hobbs and Rhodes were going up to Cambridge in the coming autumn!) Peebles will, of course, be a tremendous asset, as he can bowl either with a medium or slow turners with an occasional wrong 'un. This is not such a bad bat, and his county experience will stand him in good stead. When he was nineteen and a half he went to South Africa, in the winter of 1927-1928, and played in the first four Test Matches there. He took 34 wickets for 19.38 apiece, finishing third in the bowling averages of a side which, if not truly representative of England, was a great deal above Varsity form. In the 1928 season in England he failed to come off, and only played two or three times for Middlesex. Probably he was stale. I have already recorded his record in 1929.

A. Melville is also above the average, I fancy, as he was taken part in the Currie Cup matches in South Africa before coming to England. His brother (or cousin) was tried in the Freshers match in 1927, and in the Seniors last year, and two years ago got no further. The present Melville, however, is a present certainty, for in addition to scoring most consistently, he is a very useful leg break bowler, and has been getting quite a crop of wickets. The third of Oxford's brilliant freshmen is a genuine public-school player. D. N. Moore, who last year captained Shrewsbury and had an average of over 100. He did quite fairly in the Freshers match with 35 and 41 not out, and then made 52 against Kent and 10 against Yorkshire. As usual, when his own County (Gloucester) came up to play the Varsity, he was allowed to play for the County, and signalled the occasion by making 208. He may well become an all England bat if he goes the way of Robins and rather than that of Killick and Crawley, who do not seem to be living up to the fine promise of their early days.

The Seniors.

Akers Douglas, of whom I have already written, and J. F. N. Mayhew are the two Seniors likely to make their way into the side. The latter is a certainty. I fancy, as Benson has not gone into residence, and W. O. B. Lindsay (Harrow and Balliol) was dropped after one trial.

Fallen by the Wayside.

Needless to say, if my guess at the team is anywhere correct, several Old Blues will have to go; in all probability five new Blues will be (or have been) given. Barber and Benson have gone down and vacate two places. Brett is away ill. The other two to drop out will probably be Garthwaite and E. M. Wellings, both bowlers. They, together with R. W. Skene, have been tried this year but have not done at all well. Kingsley, however, has plenty of bowling at his disposal, as in Peebles, C. K. Hill-Wood, Melville and Garland-Wells he has a wonderful quartette of trundlers, but the more I look at it the more I fancy Levinson will go in—unless Moore, who has bowled occasionally, comes on. Five bowlers are the least one can do with at Lord's.

BOY'S DEATH FROM A KICK.

CORONER ON AGE OF RESPONSIBILITY.

A Coroner's inquiry into the death of a Chinese boy, named Chung Sau Nam (12), who was alleged to have died as a result of a kick, was held at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday. Mr. T. S. Whyte Smith acted as Coroner, assisted by a jury composed of Mr. E. G. Smith (foreman), Mr. D. C. Walmesley and Mr. Garch Cheung.

Dr. K. H. Uttley, medical officer in charge of the Kowloon Mortuary, stated that on July 2 the body of Chung Sau Nam was identified in his presence by the father, cousin and an Indian constable. A post-mortem examination was held, and he found that the deceased had died of shock following a kick in the lower region of the body.

Chung Sau Yau (11), a cousin of the deceased, said that on the evening of July 1, he, deceased and a friend were sitting on a pavement in a street in Tong Ka Wan. Kau Chai, who inflicted the fatal kick, was sitting nearby and abused them. The deceased retaliated, and a fight followed. Kau Chai then ran up to his house on seeing his grandmother, but came down afterwards and kicked the deceased, who fell down instantly.

In summing up, the Coroner told the jury that they could take it that the boy Kau Chai is 8 years old. The age of the boy was of great importance. The Coroner then referred to Russell's book on crime and read out the following:—"No child under the age of seven can be guilty of a criminal act, and furthermore no child over the age of seven or under the age of fourteen is capable of criminal responsibility."

The Coroner then directed the jury to return a verdict of "Death by Misadventure" if they found that Kau Chai was not responsible on account of his age.

The jury agreed, and a verdict of "Death by Misadventure" was returned, the foreman remarking that nothing should be said to Kau Chai.

RAID BY REVENUE OFFICERS.

DUTTABLE CIGARETTES SEIZED.

We understand that a successful raid was made by officers of the Revenue Department on Saturday at a West Point godown, where they seized a quantity of cigarettes alleged to have been brought in without paying duty. The amount of cigarettes found is said to be 400,000. Developments will, it is understood, follow at the Central Magistracy to-day.

Possibilities.

Of course there may be last-minute surprises, as we know practically nothing but the results of the last three matches. If anything went wrong with Mayhew, Lindsay would be sure to get in, I think. Of the others the two most likely to effect a surprise are C. H. Gosling (Eton and Malden), and W. H. Bradshaw (Malden and Trinity). Both played in the Freshmen's match of 1929, in which Gosling got 81, while Bradshaw—besides getting a few wickets in the Seniors this year—has done well in College cricket. He has played at least four times this year. W. E. Harbord (Eton and Worcester) saved Yorkshire by a very fine 100 against his own University, but did not do better than 9 and 18 against Gloucester, and I have no record of any further trial.

A Sound Side.

It is a sound side, and there is so much batting that the chances of a collapse are reduced to a minimum. It depends a good deal how well Peebles and Hill-Wood can bowl, if Oxford are to win outright. The latter did very poorly at Lord's last year, while Melville and Moore have shown that they at all events can play him with confidence. He has, however, got a lot of wickets, and it remains to be seen how the Light Blues will shape at him.

PEIPING CABINET PLANS.

REPORTED JAPANESE APPROVAL.

MILITARY SITUATION UNCHANGED.

According to Chinese Press reports from Peiping, preparations for the formation of the proposed Provisional Government by the Northern coalition are proceeding apace.

Instead of the five Yuan, a Cabinet will be formed, the members of which will include some of the ex-officials of the Peiyang clique, including Dr. Wellington Koo and Sun Chuan-fang, as well as officials of the Mukden clique, including Lo Wen-kai and Tang Er-hua. The selection of a Premier, however, has not yet been made.

The authorities in Peiping declare that the Japanese Government is in sympathy with the organisation of a new Government in Peiping by Yen Hsi-shan.

The Military Situation.

There appears to be no great change in the military situation in the North. Reports published in the Chinese Press indicate that, except along the front in Shantung, on the Tientsin-Pukow railway, there have been no developments on the other fronts. On the Lung-hai front, the objectives of the Nanking troops are Kaifeng and Lanfeng, but these places are still in the hands of the Northerners, in spite of many fierce attacks launched by the Government forces. The objectives of the Nanking troops in Honan, along the Peiping-Hankow railway, are Huachang and Chingchow, but these places are being strongly defended by the Kuomintang. In spite of Chiang Kai-shek's forecast of peace within a month, the conclusion of hostilities still seems a long way off.

The Nanking troops in Shantung, on the Tientsin-Pukow railway, have fallen back to Yenchow, and the Shansi troops under Fu Tso-yi have arrived at Kowli, less than 50 li to the north of Yenchow. Serious fighting has occurred during the week-end.

Han Fu-chu's troops have been instructed by Chiang Kai-shek to attack the rear of the Shansi troops, so as to check their advance southward. Han's troops are now quartered at Waihsien, on the Kiaochow-Tsinan Railway. Yen Hsi-shan has arrived at Tschow, in Northern Shantung, from Tsing-tai and will soon leave for Tsinan to direct his troops.

Along the Peiping-Hankow railway, the Nanking troops are reported to be striking northward. A military conference was held at Luoho on Saturday last, when it was decided to launch a general offensive upon Huachang.

The Communist Rising.

With regard to the activities of the Communist elements on the upper reaches of the Yangtze, the following telegraphic messages from Japanese sources in Hankow are of interest:

Shihshou and Kungang, near Shasi, in Hupeh, have fallen into the hands of the Communists. British and American gunboats have left Hankow for these places to protect foreign residents.

A Communist band, said to number over 1,000, raided the Peiping-Hankow railway station at Kwangshui, where they organised the service on Thursday last by damaging the track. Troops have been detailed from Hankow for their suppression.

The Japanese authorities in Hankow are reported to have received a threatening letter from a Communist gang, giving warning of drastic action in revenge for their suffering when attacked by Japanese gunboats at Huangshih-kwang, on the Yangtze, a month ago. The Japanese Consul-General is conferring with the commanders of Japanese gunboats with a view to taking precautionary measures.

DEVELOPMENTS IN SOUTHERN WAR-ZONE.

The Kwangsi secessionists, heading towards Kweilin from Southern Hunan, are reported to have arrived at Chuanchow, near the northern border of Kwangsi.

The 50th Canton Division, under Major-General Yu Hon-mow, which was ordered to withdraw from the northern border of Kwangsi to cope with the threatening situation in Kwangsi, arrived in Canton on Saturday and entrained immediately for Samahui, whence they will proceed to Wuchow by river escorted by gunboats. They will be quartered along the Kwei River.

Skirmishes on West River Expected.

The remnants of the troops which have remained in Kwangsi since the withdrawal of the main body of the Kwangsi "Ironsides" forces together with bodies of village volunteers, are threatening to attack the loyal Kwangsi troops, formerly under the late Governor Lui Woon-im. A clash is expected on the upper reaches of the West River.

The movements of the "Ironsides" are as obscure as ever. It is reported that over 1,000 have arrived at Yungahin, in Kiangsi, and the remainder are reported to be still on the Hunan-Kwangsi border. Large numbers of Kwangsi troops have been rushed up to deal with them.

WEST RIVER WAR THEATRE.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, July 6.

The theatre of war between the Kwangsi "Ironside" coalition and the pro-Nanking Cantonese forces under General Chen Tsai-tong is once more shifting back to the West River.

Kwangsi Troops Return Home.

After the recent fierce battle of Hengchow and Chingning in southern Hunan, in which both sides suffered heavy casualties, the Kwangsi troops withdrew to Kwangsi through Yungchow, while their allies, the "Ironsides" moved in another direction. These insurgents marched with great rapidity, and the latest dispatches from Kwangsi state that a big part of the Kwangsi troops have already arrived in Kweilin and are preparing to march down the Kwei River once more with Wuchow as their first objective.

Whereabouts of "Ironsides" Unknown.

Where the "Ironsides" are at present is not known with certainty. It is believed that they are trying to enter Kwangtung from Namhung, Chihing and other places in conjunction with the attack of their Kwangsi allies from the West River.

Preparing to Meet New Situation.

The Canton Higher Command is busy making preparations to meet the new situation. Over 50 sampans, junks, and steam launches have been commandeered during the last four days for the transportation of troops, ammunitions and war supplies up the West River. A great number of motor lorries have also been commandeered for the same purpose. The Canton-Hankow Railway has been taken over by the military nearly a week ago. Practically all the Cantonese troops on the north border and in southern Hunan have been hurriedly transferred to the West River by railway and the junks commandeered for the purpose.

Canton-Hankow Railway.

There has been no passenger service on the Canton-Hankow Railway for the past several days, but the authorities state in a circular notice to the public that regular services will be resumed as usual, beginning to-morrow morning.

General Chen Tsai-tong.

General Chen Tsai-tong returned to Canton from Lok Chang close to the Kwangtung-Hunan border last Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. He will leave for the West River in the course of the next two or three days to direct operations there.

A great number of Canton notables greeted him and his staff as they alighted from the train at the Sai Tsun Station, which was lined up with picked troops. The General admitted in an interview with local newspapers this morning that the Kwangsi troops are returning to Kwangsi "to prolong their rebellious activities." He further added that the remnants of the enemy troops do not exceed 6,000, and that he would crush them within a month.

Lui's Troops Join Coalition Forces.

Reports are current that a big part of General Lui Woon-im's troops in Kwangsi have capitulated to the Kwangsi "Ironside" coalition, following the assassination of their chief in Canton a month ago.

These reports, if true, will render the task of General Chen Tsai-tong doubly hard. It is said that the reactionary elements are making their appearance in Wuchow already.

MOTOR MISHAP.

CAR "COLLIDES" WITH A FOOD TRAY.

WINDSCREEN SMASHED.

Damage to his car and payment of compensation resulted from an unusual accident in which a motorist was involved at Queen's Road Central yesterday owing to the carelessness of a pedestrian.

The car, a Baby Austin, bearing licence No. 2408, and driven by a young Chinese, was passing the traffic policeman's box at the top of Pedder Street when a restaurant joki, carrying a tray of Chinese dishes, hesitated in front of the car. He eventually jumped aside, but bumped the tray on the bonnet of the car.

The heavy cups smashed the windscreen, and the contents, which included several bowls of macaroni, were thrown on the bonnet. The joki willingly gave the motorist a temporary clean up, while the latter on his part volunteered to pay for the broken crockery and the food. This was done and the incident closed.

CANTON MILITARY LOAN.

REDEMPTION EXTENDED TO THREE YEARS.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, July 6.

To the great disappointment of the merchants and other subscribers, the Canton Government has to-day announced that it will not be in a position to pay back the Military Loan until three years hence.

The amount forming the Loan was $4,000,000, and at the time of flotation the Government promised to pay the money back without interest at the end of the first eight months. Every merchant throughout Kwangtung was forced to take up a certain sum according to the capital of his establishment. Every property owner was also forced to take up bonds to the tune of a month's rental. No security was attached to the loan.

The Government's extension of the time of redemption from eight months to three years has created a great deal of anxiety among the richer class.

CANTON'S ELECTRICITY SUPPLY.

MUNICIPALITY TAKES OVER COMPANY.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, July 6.

With a view to providing an uninterrupted supply of electricity at all hours and to putting a stop to the theft of electricity, the Provisional Government of Kwangtung has to-day ordered the Canton Municipal Government and the Department of Reconstruction to take over the Canton Light and Power Company for a period of one year.

During this period stringent measures governing the consumption of electricity and the like will be put into effect.

The Government hopes to put everything in order by the end of this time, when the management will then be returned to the Company.

TWO SOLDIERS SENT TO PRISON.

THEFT OF WATCHES.

Two soldiers, Stanley Warman and Harry Briggs of the Somerset Light Infantry, were brought before Mr. T. S. Whyte Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday on a charge of stealing two wrist-watches from a shop at 263, Leich-kok Road. Both defendants pleaded guilty.

Evidence was given by the shop foki, who stated that the accused came to the shop and asked for wrist-watches. When they were produced each man put one in his pocket and calmly walked away. Police whistles were then blown and the accused were arrested by a police officer.

Records of the two men were then produced by a military officer, and Briggs was shown to have committed a similar offence last August. The Magistrate accordingly sentenced Briggs to twelve months' hard labour and Warman to two months.

In passing sentence, His Worship remarked that it was obvious that the men had committed the theft in order to get out of the army.

RUN ON ANOTHER CHINESE BANK.

FIELD DAY FOR PICK-POCKETS.

What might be described as an echo of the recent closing of a leading native bank occurred on Saturday when there was a "run" on the National Commercial and Savings Bank, Limited, which is situated at 144-150, Des Vaux Road Central.

A Daily Press representative called on the bank and found that a large crowd had collected outside the premises, while the inside was packed with people who were anxious to draw out whatever they had deposited in the bank.

Interviewed by our representative, an official of the bank said there was no cause for alarm, and they were meeting all the demands adequately. The people who want their money back are mostly the poorer class, and the "run" is only on the Savings Department. The usual closing time was extended for a few hours so that the bank's clients might be all attended to.

The official added that no sooner had the poor people got their money back than their pockets were picked by some light-handed gentry, who were waiting outside the bank all morning for the purpose. However, a special squad of police officers were sent for and their appearance on the scene soon put a stop to the crime.

Two Chinese policemen were on duty outside the entrance of the bank, keeping the crowd in order when our representative arrived.

ROYAL WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

KING GEORGE AND QUEEN MARY.

[UNITED PRESS.]

London, July 6.—Thirty-seven years of married bliss were completed to-day by King George and Queen Mary.

In the calm which comes with age—the King is 63 and the Queen two years younger—they can look back on a lifetime crammed with events: events common to all—births, deaths, marriages, and events peculiar to Royal—a coronation, the responsibility of an Empire in the throes of war, the never-ending State functions.

Their married life has been one long romance. Even their wedding was romantic, a film story in an age when cinemas were unknown.

A Royal Romance.

Queen Mary was destined to become the consort of the Empire's ruler. Daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, she was almost from birth educated for the position which her mother dreamt she would eventually hold.

In the course of time Princess May, as she was known then, became engaged to the Duke of Clarence, elder brother of King George, and heir to the throne after his father, King Edward VII., then Prince of Wales.

Opinions differ whether the betrothal of Albert and May was a love-match or an affair of State. But the facts are these.

The Duke of Clarence died suddenly in 1892, following a cold while shooting at Sandringham. The Court was plunged into mourning, yet no sooner had the year of official mourning ended, than the world was startled by the announcement of the betrothal of Prince George and Princess May, to be quickly followed by their marriage on July 6, 1892, just over a year after the Duke of Clarence's death.

At White Lodge.

After marriage, they set up house at White Lodge, Richmond Park, Surrey, as the Duke and Duchess of York, and there led the life of an ordinary Royal husband and wife. A son was born to them a year later, the infant, who is now the Prince of Wales, followed by another son, the present Duke of York, the year after, and then by a girl, Princess Mary, in 1897. Two more sons were born in 1900 and 1902, Prince Henry and Prince George.

By this time King Edward had come to the throne on the death of Queen's Victoria, and the Duke of York had been made Prince of Wales.

It was in 1910 that Prince George became King of England, and Mary his Queen Consort. In the following year, little Prince David was made Prince of Wales with traditional ceremony at Carnarvon Castle.

Epoch-Making Events.

Since then the King and Queen have watched their family grow up, two of them—Princess Mary and the Duke of York—to be married, and the other three to take a leading part in affairs of State.

They have seen many epoch-making events, the growth of flying, wireless, motor-cars, and other modern inventions, and they have seen history made, the funeral of Queen Victoria, attended by seven kings, including the ex-Kaiser, and said to be the most elaborate ceremony of its kind known to history; the world war, and the fall of the King's cousin, ex-Kaiser Wilhelm; the succession of Governments; culminating in the present Labour Administration, and still more recently, the Naval Conference, the world's first concrete step towards peace on earth and goodwill towards men.

Not the least of events in the lives of the King and Queen was the very severe illness contracted by his Majesty in November, 1922. The deep devotion of the Royal couple was never more marked than during the critical period of the King's illness during the Christmas of 1922. Such was the attention the Queen lavished on the King that she herself had a breakdown in health due to over-work and worry.

To-day King George and Queen Mary will look back on thirty-seven years of harmonious married life, and look forward to many more years, unmarred, so far as human prophecy can tell, by any untoward calamities.

THE COMMUNIST RISING.

Reuter now confirms the news received from our Shanghai correspondent last Monday that Communists were extremely active on the Yangtze, in the vicinity of Shasi. Unfortunately, their activity has led to the death of an American bluejacket and the wounding of two British sailors. Why shots came to be directed at passing foreign warships is not explained, but H.M.S. Tal promptly retaliated for this outrage by returning the fire. The Communists appear to be proceeding very rapidly down the river towards Hankow, and have now captured the city of Yochow, which stands at the head of the great Tung Ting Lake. It seems from latest reports that about one hundred miles along both banks of the Yangtze, from Shasi to Yochow, are in the possession of these Communist forces, and the capture of the latter place brings them to a point about a hundred miles south of Hankow.

This unexpected development introduces yet another factor into the grim struggle going on between the Nanking Government and the Northern faction. In an interview with Reuter's correspondent, Marshal CHIANG KAI SHEK spoke with the greatest confidence of the military situation—but of course he could scarcely do otherwise. He spoke of hostilities being concluded within a month, declared that General FENG YU HSANG had abandoned the idea of attacking Hankow, and that the "enemy" morale had been destroyed, he being now content to remain on the defensive. Reports from the other side, quite naturally, are no less confident; the Nanking armies are declared to be retreating in great confusion; being hotly pursued by the forces which CHIANG KAI SHEK described as broken and disheartened. As for the amazing "Ironside," they have been decimated and half annihilated, yet there seems to be no small amount of nervousness in Canton as to the possibility of their causing considerable trouble in that neighbourhood. The Communist rising along the Yangtze makes confusion worse confounded. According to the news sent last week by our Shanghai correspondent, banners bearing the Bolshevik device of the hammer and sickle were being carried by this newly-created army. It was said, too, that as this Communist force advanced, areas of farmland were being seized and organised for working on definitely Soviet lines. There were indications that the movement had been carefully organised, the "brains" apparently being supplied by the young men who—having studied abroad and found no opportunity for making use of their talents on returning to China—decided to organise this Communist rising. The young men undoubtedly are becoming very impatient at the exceedingly slow, and by no means sure, political methods of their elders. They are getting weary of these fatuous and futile wars between military factions whose victories and defeats have no effect upon the nation other than to delay its natural progress toward peace and prosperity. But Communism is favoured neither by Nanking or the North, nor are the Communists in a position to meet the troops of either opposing faction with any hope of success. The Yangtze rising is simply one more, contentious element introduced into the grim struggle for power that is going on, and is calculated to delay, rather than to hasten, the dawning of the great day of unification.

BEAVERBROOK AND THE BANKERS.

So the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street, with some of her most influential associates, has come out on the side of Empire Trade. It is quite a simple arrangement—Britain must be an open market for all Empire products, and closed against imports from other countries. The overseas Dominions, for their part, will buy from Britain such goods as do not compete with their own industrial activities—infant or established. Lord BEAVERBROOK will be delighted to find the bankers supporting his Crusade—men who for the most part have been convinced of the folly of attempting to force trade through artificial channels. What Mr. BALDWIN thinks of this latest development—coming so swiftly after his very definite challenge to the Empire Crusaders—it will be interesting to know. Possibly his friend, Sir ROBERT HOARE, has had something to do with engineering this bankers' outburst of praise for the BEAVERBROOK plan. Certainly, it is a very remarkable departure from previously held opinions about British trade.

It will be interesting, too, to see the Labour Party's reaction to the bankers' manifesto. Labour is rather suspicious about the active interference of financiers in industrial and commercial affairs, and the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street is very closely interested nowadays in industry. Only a few weeks ago the Bank of England took its first step in the rationalization of the country's industry by securing a controlling interest in a merger of five of England's biggest steel companies, with a combined capital of nearly £8,000,000. The five companies are amalgamated into two concerns, and the directors will be appointed by Mr. MONTAGU NORMAN, now serving his tenth term as Governor of the Bank of England. Mr. NORMAN thus becomes the nation's rationalization dictator as well as its steel king. The Bank of England has already formed the Securities Management Trust for the assistance of heavy industries, and the Bankers Industrial Development Company to give financial aid to basic industries. The organizations formed from the amalgamation of the big steel companies are called the Lancashire Steel Corporation and the Wigan Corporation. The steel and coal interests of the combine will be developed separately.

The Securities Management Trust subscribes £500,000 to the Lancashire Steel Corporation, and in return receives enough "B" ordinary shares to give it voting control. The firm of Henry Schroder, chief operator with the Bank of England in its new industrial schemes and one of the shareholders in the Bankers' Industrial Development Co., is raising fresh capital for the coal and steel development. Thus the whole scheme is under the direct control of the Governor of the Bank of England, as further rationalization plans are expected to be. Financial quarters received the announcement of the steel merger approvingly, but there was some criticism from Labour quarters on the grounds that industrialists would not welcome the principle upon which the Bank's assistance was given. The opposition seems to be that financiers are obtaining too large a control of industry. It is pointed out that the Bank holds only £300,000 of the £8,000,000 steel combine, but holds the voting rights and appoints the directors of the new companies.

Critics of the scheme foresee that if similar rationalization schemes are carried out, the industrialists must hand themselves over to the Bank of England, and lose effective control of their industries if they are to receive financial assistance. Thus far there have been no indication that the Bank desires any such wide powers. The announced principle has been that the Bank will assist the basic industries toward rationalization if a plan is found, acceptable to both the industrialists and the financiers. It was made clear that there would be no support for hit-or-miss schemes. The chief objection of the Labour critics is that the Bank of England is not a public institution, subject to national control, but a strictly private body subject to no outside influence. It is agreed that the City should support industry on the road to recovery, but the Labourites wonder where the industrialists, the workers, and the MacDonald Government come in.

A wedding in Sunderland last month was preceded by the observance of a quaint and ancient custom that is said to be still practised in Aberdeenshire. The relatives of both the bride and bridegroom hail from the granite city, and the idea of the ritual followed is that the bridal pair shall enter the church with clean feet, and so be sure of good luck in married life. The bride and bridegroom, before the marriage ceremony, were lured to the home of a mutual friend, and there they were forcibly divested of their shoes and stockings. Their feet were then liberally smeared with a mixture of soot, ink, and treacle. That compelled them to wash their feet, and so ensures the good fortune wished them.

Peter, for so long Luigi's chief maitre d'hotel at the Embassy Club, recently received from the Hon. Wilfred Egerton, chairman of the club, his definite appointment as manager of the restaurant. For the first time he appeared on the floor of the club not wearing evening clothes. As manager, it is restaurant etiquette for him to be in short black jacket and dark sailor-knot tie. There are as many grades in restaurant garb as there are in signs of rank in a regiment of the line. There is the small commis with apron round his waist, and the young waiter in apron, white tie and tail coat, who go to the kitchen to fetch the dishes for the chef de rang. The chef de rang, who has charge of three or four tables, wears a black tie to his tail coat. Higher up the scale the maitre d'hotel has dinner-jacket and black tie. But the restaurant manager in the day-time appears in muff, and becomes a great man. Peter is young-looking, slim, helpful, blessed with good manners, is popular with the members and will carry on the Embassy Club tradition. A £1 subscription list has been started at the Embassy Club to found a hospital cot in memory of Luigi.

Claims that a new industry—the manufacture of electrical porcelain and statite insulators—has been founded in Britain, through the opening of a new research laboratory at Stourport, are contested, among others, by Sir Francis Joseph, chairman of the North Staffordshire Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of Staffordshire manufacturers. Sir Francis states that British electrical porcelain is, and has been since long before the war, in use on high-tension lines all over the Empire and the world, and that in many instances the British product has supplanted both the German and the American article.

When the Bishop of London Dr. Ingram recently dedicated the site for new buildings for the Heritage Craft Schools at Chislehurst, Sussex, the children presented him with a tennis racket, hockey stick, and gold balls. Luigi Sacconi, one of Soho's best-known head waiters, was found dead recently with his head in a gas oven at his lodgings. He had been the friend and confidant of two generations of diners-out, and had frequently served members of foreign royal families, who knew him well. Misfortune overtook him some months ago when an Italian bank failed, and he lost all his life's savings. "Alas!" he said at the time, "I cannot rejoin my wife and children in Italy now." Signor Maggioni, manager of Genaro's restaurant in New Compton-street, said: "I feared something was wrong with Luigi. When I reached his room this morning it was too late. I helped to pull him away from the gas oven, but he was already dead. We had been business associates for many years, but a few weeks ago he left my restaurant to become manager of Toni's restaurant along the street."

"Toby's" Club in London, which is where the Florida used to be, is developing a faithful clientele. The glass dance floor has been done away with, and that change seems popular; and there is individuality about the variety turns, that are introduced at supper time.

Those who knew, were aware that the ultimate return of Sir John Simon to the active life of the House of Commons was a certainty, and that the talk of his retiring to the House of Lords, was based on conjecture alone. Sir John has done all the retiring he intends by leaving the Bar. Henceforth he will be heard a great deal in the House and on the platform. The Lords would be for him more of a prison house, than it is for most of the strongly-marked individuals already there.

Nicola, who will commence a season at the Star Theatre, Kowloon, to-night, started on his career of mystifying at the very early age of four, when he assisted his father, also a magician, in the staging of his shows. From there he drifted towards the East, sensing instinctively that in the Orient lay the true secrets of magic and mystery, and spent twenty-six years wandering there. "I do not claim to do the impossible," says the Nicola, "just the improbable." Looking Back 50 Years.

The Tokyo Times of the 19th ult. contains an article on the alleged claim by China upon Macao, which is characterised by much malevolence and unfairness towards the Portuguese. The writer asserts that the Chinese Government have a right to repossess themselves of Macao at their volition, and that, so far, Portugal has failed to demonstrate they have no justice on their side. Now Portugal claims Macao by right of cession, of conquest, and of long and undisturbed possession. The Portuguese assert—and no authoritative contradiction has ever been given to the assertion—that the peninsula was given to them by China for services rendered by them in helping to suppress piracy on the China coast. Supposing, however, for a moment that China denies that she ever ceded this strip of territory in perpetuity, and said that she merely suffered the Portuguese to settle there without payment of rent, and that the Government of Portugal can produce no documentary proofs of the cession of the Colony to them—we say, supposing all this, the Portuguese still have a good title to the Peninsula.—Hong Kong Daily Press, July 7, 1880.

MARSHAL CHIANG ON THE WAR.LUNGHAI THE IMPORTANT FRONT.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

KWEIWEI, July 5.

Interviewed by Reuter's representative in the picturesque headquarters at Liuhou, on the Lunghai Railway, 112 miles west of Hanchowfu, Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, who was in the best of humour and smiling happily, discussed the war frankly.

Hostilities Proceeding In Government's Favour.

He declared that Lunghai was the important front. The hostilities were proceeding, as far as he could see, in the Government's favour.

The Government's positions were well fortified and they were meeting a steadily lessening resistance. The Government's object was not so much to gain ground or capture cities, but to eliminate the enemy as a fighting force.

Enemy on the Defensive.

The Generalissimo declared that the war had been protracted because the enemy, who had attacked from the outset, had now changed their tactics and were remaining on the defensive. The Government, however, since the beginning of the war, had reduced the enemy's forces by three-quarters.

The Generalissimo expressed the opinion that hostilities would last at the most for another month.

Shantung Situation.

Discussing the Shantung situation, Marshal Chiang Kai Shek emphasised that whatever forces the Northerners were sending across the Yellow River would not be allowed to return. Their fate would be settled in Shantung.

Shantung Yen's Doom!

As soon as Yen Hsi Shan steps into Shantung it will be his doom.

Turning to the question of the Peiping-Hankow Railway, Chiang Kai Shek stated that Feng Yu Hsiang had originally planned to attack Hankow and had now abandoned the idea.

"I feel that we have reached such a point that wherever the enemy see the blue and white Nationalist emblem they refuse to advance. They have lost their morale."

Chiang Kai Shek declared that the Government had sufficient force to subjugate the enemy without the assistance of Chang Hsueh Liang.

He said: "Anyone who desires the Government aims to destroy peace and the unification of China. Such persons must be exterminated."

Plans—After the War.

When the war is over he is planning to proceed with the unification of China step by step.

There was nothing about Chiang Kai Shek to suggest that he had been wounded. He laughingly gave the lie to reports to that effect which had been circulated all over China. He is looking very sunburnt and fit and is distinctly cheerful.

QUEENSLAND EX-PREMIER RESIGNS.FOUND GUILTY OF FRAUD BY ROYAL COMMISSION.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SYDNEY, July 5.

The Federal Treasurer, the Rt. Hon. Mr. Edward Grenville Theodore, has resigned following the announcement of the findings of the Queensland Royal Commission of Enquiry into the circumstances attending the purchase of Mungana (Chillagoe) Mines by the Queensland Labour Government when Mr. Theodore was Premier.

The Commission finds that Mr. Theodore and another Labour ex-Premier, Mr. W. McCormack, also Mr. Goddard, who was Mines Manager at Chillagoe, were guilty of fraud and dishonesty in procuring the State to purchase mines for £40,000.

Mr. Theodore, interviewed, hotly denied the charges, which, he declared, were the work of his political enemies.

Mr. Theodore has made clear that his resignation will only operate until these charges are cleared up.

SPEED LIMIT FOR MOTOR-CARS.HIGHWAY CODE TO BE PUBLISHED.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, July 5.

The House of Commons have approved the Government's proposal to abolish the speed limit for motor-cars by a two to one majority.

It is proposed that when the decision takes effect a system of police patrols on motor-cycles and in motor-cars will be established, the cost to be met out of grants from the Road Fund.

Mr. Morrison, Transport Minister, said the speed limit system had broken down, but that with its abolition efforts to prevent dangerous driving would have to be redoubled. The Government would publish a "Highway Code" for the education not only of motorists but of pedestrians, who needed it equally.

HUMAN PARASITES.RACKETEERING INDUSTRY IN AMERICA.

New York, June 27.—At a summer conference of the League of Industrial Democracy at Forest Hill, Pennsylvania, racketeering in America was described as a national industry with $3,000,000,000 of annual turn-over from a single one of its multiple operations, namely, bootlegging, involving five per cent. of America's population.

Mr. Paul Blanchard, former associate editor of the Nation, defined racketeering, saying that it is a scheme by which human parasites graft themselves upon and live by the industry of others, maintaining their hold by terrorism, fraud, misrepresentation and manipulation.

Chicago is Typical City.

Chicago is the representative city of racketeering. Professor Douglas attributed the continuous gang warfare of Chicago to the absence of monopoly among the bootleggers and to local politics which is responsible for the reign of the sawed-off shotgun. He said that the failure of any political machine to assume a predominating position complicates the picture of Chicago's gang life. The reason that decent people do not clean up the city is that the same group of politicians who protect the underworld, also grant favours to influential sections of high circles in the city.

Greatest Menace of Century.

"Liaison between the politicians and the gangsters is the greatest menace of the century, and the gangster who is a factor in practical city politics to-day is the chief power. Prohibition is the chief factor in the growth of gangsterism in America, as the gangsters and politicians know full well that nobody wants Prohibition."—Osaka Mainichi.

EMPIRE TRADE AND TARIFFS.MEASURES TO STIMULATE INTERNATIONAL TRADE.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, July 5.

In political circles much discussion centres upon the resolution adopted by many of the leading bankers and industrialists regarding tariffs and Empire trade.

The document which was transmitted yesterday advocated prompt measures for stimulating inter-imperial trade and pointed out that the restrictions upon European trade, instead of decreasing had increased, and while retaining the hope of an ultimate extension of Empire trade throughout the world expressed the belief that an immediate step required was inter-imperial trade agreements secured by leaving British markets open to Empire products and imposing tariffs on the imports from countries.

The importance of the document is minimised by the free traders.

Press Comments.

The Daily Herald, (Labour) describes it as interesting rather than important, and states that the signatory bankers were expressing their personal opinion rather than their official views. It thinks the City views are well nearer to the bankers' manifesto of October, 1923, in favour of free trade, and that the present resolution is the product of a minority group.

A similar line is taken by the Liberal papers.

The Daily Mail and Daily Express regard the resolution as an important score for the Empire free trade policy they are advocating.

The Telegraph says that in Conservative circles the resolution is welcomed as justifying the action of Mr. Baldwin, in advancing a policy of the economic unity of the Empire, and that in the new situation the disappearance of the referendum is held to be inevitable.

The Times says that the resolution, taken in conjunction with the report on the economic policy by the General Council of the Trades Union Congress, is held by the Conservatives to give Mr. Baldwin every right to consider action regarding his referendum pledge, should he desire to do so.

Dominions' Secretary's Views.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Dominions, said yesterday that the Government intended to enter the forthcoming Imperial Conference free to consider every problem on its merits without prejudice or bias, adding: "It will be prepared to discuss with a single-minded desire of finding a solution of this important question on which so much attention is at present being focused. To say more than that would be dangerous and calculated to do harm by building up hopes and expectations which may not be realised."

Originally it was thought that they might have continued their flight to Bangkok without touching Rangoon, but they have not arrived here. Search parties are being organised.

RANGOON, July 5.

The Government have received a message stating that the Hook and Matthews' aeroplane is reported to have crashed 12 miles from Tanagup.

The local authorities have been asked to carry out an immediate search.

AERIAL ENDURANCE RECORD.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

CHICAGO, July 4.

John and Kenneth Hunter have landed after remaining in the air for 23 days and one hour, beating the previous record by 5 days and 13 hours. They had to come down owing to a broken oil gauge.

The two men are brothers, both coal-miners, and adopted flying as a hobby.

The machine they used in their record-refuelling flight is a second-hand one.

They will win about £40,000 in prize money.

Two older brothers took up supplies to them every day.

KINGSFORD-SMITH A WING COMMANDER.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

OAKLAND (Cal.), July 5.

Kingsford-Smith is now promoted to Wing Commander. He arrived in the "Southern Cross," and is thus the first to complete the round-the-world flight by a direct route over the Pacific to the Atlantic.

WORLD'S AERIAL SPEED RECORD.FURTHER ATTACK TO BE MADE.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, July 4.

It is learned that a request is to be made to the Air Ministry to permit a further attack on the existing world speed record, held by Squadron Leader Orlébar, at 350.7 miles an hour.

This is a seaplane which has recently been altered after having been flown at 356 miles an hour by Flight Lieutenant Stainforth.

The modifications which have been made will, it is estimated, add at least 25 miles to the plane's maximum speed.

The machine is now at Felixstowe, where tests are shortly to be made with it.

It is hoped to secure the services of a pilot, and Flight Lieutenant Stainforth is understood to be prepared to make the attempt.

ROUMANIAN COURT SENSATION.MADAME LUPESCU RETURNS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, July 4.

A message from Bucharest states that a sensation has been caused in Court and political circles owing to the arrival at the Royal Summer Palace, at Sinaia, of Madame Lupescu, who was King Carol's companion in exile.

King Carol is expected there tomorrow.

DUKE OF YORK OPENS WEYMOUTH'S BRIDGE.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, July 4.

H.R.H. the Duke of York to-day visited Weymouth and opened the new bridge over the harbour which has cost £290,000.

In doing so, he pressed a button which started 400 horse-power electrical motors lifting 200 tons of steel girders in one and three-quarter minutes.

Fifteen hundred school children in pleasure-steamers then passed under the bridge, heartily cheering.

His Royal Highness said he admired His Majesty's wisdom in selecting Weymouth for rest and recreation.

WIMBLEDON TENNIS.TILDEN REGAINS CHAMPIONSHIP.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, July 6.

In the final of the men's singles, Tilden (America) beat Allison 6-3, 9-7, 6-4.

LATER.

In the presence of Their Majesties King George and Queen Mary, and Prince George, "Bill" Tilden staged the greatest "come back" in the history of modern sport when he routed the 13-year younger Wilmer Allison and won the championship after an interval of nine years.

In spite of all the youngster's attempts to force the pace, Tilden played his own game and dispensed with all finesse and relied on solid and accurate drives and a cannon-ball service, with which he stormed through the first and third sets. Pinning down Allison to the back-line, he cunningly prevented all attempts to force the speed.

Tilden played Allison's masterly service magnificently, except in the third set, when Allison served ace after ace, winning seven games until Tilden broke through in the fifteenth.

Mixed Doubles.

In the mixed doubles final, Crawford (Australia) and Miss Ryan (America) beat Pann and Fraulein Krahwinkel (Germany) 6-2, 6-3.

Men's Doubles Not Played.

The men's doubles are to be played on Monday owing to Allison

FRIENDLY CRICKET.

UNIVERSITY v. "THE RAMBLERS."

The above match was played at Pokfulam yesterday and resulted in a win for the visitors by 37 runs.

The Ramblers batted first, and though their first wicket fell very shortly after the start, A. el Arculli and Burnett batted nicely to give them a good beginning. The latter was top-scorer with 31 runs, which were the result of a stylish innings, while Arculli also brought off some good shots in his knock for 16.

The most successful bowler for the undergraduates was Rodrigues, who took 3 wickets for 20 runs. The University started well, but after their first wicket fell, a rot set in and the rest followed rapidly. Their top-scorer was Rodrigues, whilst the bowlers for the Ramblers shared the wickets, F. M. el Arculli taking 2 for 12, Burnett (3 for 22), Saffad (2 for 13) and Hajeson (2 for 10).

His time was 13 minutes, 56.2/5th seconds.

Martelin led all the way up to the twenty-fifth mile, where McLeod Wright overtook him. He entered the Stadium amidst tremendous applause 40 yards ahead of the Fin, who made a great effort and pulled up 20 yards. He was spent, however, and Wright ran out a worthy winner.

Martelin's time was 2 hours, 35 minutes, 35 seconds.

Sam Ferris, the third man, did the distance in 2 hours 41 minutes, 56 seconds.

London, July 5.

HENLEY REGATTA.

TERRIFIC STROKE SPEED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

London, July 4.
The American schoolboys reached the semi-final of the Thames Cup at Henley Regatta to-day when they defeated Princeton University in a most exciting race.

After a false start Princeton got well away and drew ahead. The Kent School crew was unable to draw level in the race, but opposite the enclosure the schoolboys' cox, whistling shrilly through his teeth, worked up the stroke to the terrific rate of 40 a minute.

Slowly, inch by inch Kent drew level, and 50 yards from the finish the schoolboys drew ahead and won by half a length.

Their time was 7 minutes and 27 seconds, one better than last year's winners.

The final of the Diamond Sculls will provide the first meeting between a German and a Canadian in the history of the race.

To-day Boetzelen (Germany) defeated Joe Wright, a former holder of the title and one of the Canadian challengers, by one and a quarter lengths, after a very spirited race. The German's time was 8 minutes 52 seconds.

The other Canadian challenger, Guest, easily defeated Collett of Leander, his time being 8 minutes 42 seconds.

Canadian Wins the Diamond Sculls.

London, July 5.

In the Diamond Sculls final, the Canadian, Guest, easily defeated the German champion, Boetzelen, in 8 mins. 29 secs.

The Diamond Sculls is known as the world's amateur championship sculling event and is sculled over a mile and 550 yards' course. The event was established in 1844 and the first American to win the event was E. H. Tann Eyrick in 1897.

M. Hoover from Minnesota won the Diamond Sculls in 1929, being the only other American who has ever won the event.

Later.

In spite of their striking 40 to the minute, Kent was unable to beat Worcester (Oxford), who led throughout, though the boys gained considerably towards the finish, and the undergraduates were totally exhausted.

In the Visitors' race, Brasenose beat Pembroke (Cambridge) by one and a half lengths in 8 mins. and 6 seconds, and Thames Vesta beat Worcester by a length in 7 mins. and 23 seconds.

In the final of the Stewards' London beat Leander by one and a half lengths in 7 mins. and 34 seconds.

Silver Goblets.

In the final of the Silver Goblets, Priddleaux and Rickett (Third Trinity) beat Graham and Johnston (Brasenose) by two lengths in 8 mins. and 42 seconds.

Wyfolds (London) beat Vesta easily in 7 mins. and 52 seconds.

Later.

In the semi-finals of the Thames Cup, Vesta beat Quintin by a length in 7 mins. and 14 seconds, and Worcester College (Oxford) beat Kent School (United States) by half a length in 7 mins. and 14 seconds.

Grand Challenge.

In the final of the Grand Challenge Cup, London beat Leander (holders) by one and a half lengths in 8 mins. and 56 seconds.

In the Ladies' Plate, Lady Margaret College (Cambridge) beat Pembroke College (Cambridge) by one and three-quarters of a length in 7 mins. and 10 secs.

HOME CRICKET SCORES.

ELEVEN CENTURIES RECORDED IN MID-WEEK MATCHES.

London, July 5.
Features in the cricket matches concluded at home during the week-end were the high scores recorded by batsmen, including a century in each innings by Whysall for Notts. Killick, the Cambridge University player, heads the batting list with 182, while the Nawab of Pataudi helped Oxford to win with his own contribution, being an unfinished 167.

Bowlers were not so much in prominence on this occasion, but two good feats may be mentioned. Nichols, bowling for Somerset, took three wickets for only four runs. Bradshaw, the Oxford bowler, dismissed four batsmen for a total of 15 runs.

He was senior captain of the East Extension fleet and has commanded both the Patrol and the Cable. Capt. Welsh was well-known in shipping and business circles and as a Mason.

Mr. T. L. Evans, general manager of United Engineers, Ltd., Singapore, left by the Ranpura last week on retirement after 30 years' service with United Engineers and the company's predecessors. The staffs at the head offices and branches presented Mr. Evans with a gold cigar case and a gold card case at a function at which Mr. A. M. Hamilton, the sales manager, presided.

A 630-carat sapphire of rich cornflower blue colour has been discovered at Mogok, Upper Burma, in the Pagoda Mine. The rough gem weighs 930 carats, but several fragments themselves will be valuable when cut off. It is impossible to estimate the value, but in this connection it may be stated that a 1,000-carat sapphire found last August fetched £212,000, while a rough 42-carat "peacock" ruby, reduced to 24 carats, fetched £23,000.

ABERDEEN LORRY ACCIDENT.

TWO VICTIMS SUCCUMB.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE AGAINST DRIVER.

In connection with the lorry accident near the Tai Hang distillery at Aberdeen on June 24, when 25 Chinese were injured, Fong Yee Chon, the driver, has now serious charges preferred against him.

On June 26, he pleaded guilty to a charge of "wanton and furious driving" when he was before Mr. R. E. Lindsell at Central Magistrate. Sentence was deferred, as Traffic Inspector Alexander told the Magistrate that two of the 25 injured persons, a man and a woman, were in a serious condition and might succumb to their wounds. On the afternoon of the same day, the man died, and a charge of manslaughter was subsequently made out against the defendant.

When the accused appeared before Mr. R. E. Lindsell again on Saturday, it was intimated that the woman also had died. The driver was again remanded by the Magistrate in order to enable the prosecution to consider drawing up a further charge against him in regard to the death of the woman.

Those who think that the value of an expensive bottle of scent is made up of twopennyworth of perfume, alcohol and the remainder of name, and bottle would have been surprised at the French scents at the sale of the barber's and perfumery shop of the Hotel Cecil last month. Attractive young women, hoping to acquire a bottle of "Ambre Antique" or "Origan" for a few pence, had to turn sadly away. Many pounds were given for them. Bath salts and hair shampoo, on the other hand, went for a song, and one woman bought eight large bottles of their lotion for seven shillings and sixpence. One is interested, a proponent of scents, to read of M. Coty's views concerning the popularity of different perfumes in different countries. American women, it seems, have a taste for exotic and complex odours, whereas English women like only the freshest and purest garden bonquets. Burned amber and heliotrope, again, intoxicate the dark-haired beauties of Spain. While amber and rose in their simplest form, considered by perfumers to be the finest products of their art, delight the French.

COTTON INDUSTRY CRISIS.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

REFORMS URGED TO RESTORE TRADE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, July 4. The Report of the Economic Advisory Council's Committee on the Cotton Industry, which was first published in August last year, first under the chairmanship of Mr. William Graham and then of Mr. J. R. Clynes, emphasises the necessity for concerted action by employers and operatives in the direction of reduction in costs, and an increase in efficiency. Otherwise, it is unlikely that Lancashire will be able to arrest the decline in exports and recover its lost trade.

Immediate Action Imperative.

The Report declares that the crisis is urgent and that immediate action is imperative. It says if the industry itself does not embark immediately on serious consideration of methods for essential for the recovery of trade, in which connection the Committee makes a number of recommendations. It will be the duty of the Government to consider inviting Parliament to confer on the Government the necessary powers to that end.

Definite Production Policy Recommended.

Amongst the recommendations of the Committee is an improvement in technical methods including the use of short-stapled Indian cotton in preference to the more expensive long-stapled American cotton; the manufacture of cheap standard lines, in which British goods have been largely ousted in the Eastern markets; and also the use of ring spindles and the introduction of automatic and semi-automatic looms; the formation of large units in the spinning and manufacturing sections, enabling the formulation of a definite production policy. Such amalgamations might necessitate considerable fresh capital, and the Committee is assured that the necessary finance will be forthcoming for any satisfactory rationalisation scheme.

Furthermore, co-operative effort throughout the industry must be developed.

Mission to Far East.

The Committee suggests that the industry should dispatch a Mission or Missions to examine changed conditions abroad, particularly in the Far East, which have vitally affected the Home position, and add that the Government should facilitate the work of the Missions to the utmost.

Mr. Clynes Meets Leaders.

MANCHESTER, July 4. A meeting of representatives of all sections of the cotton industry, held here to consider the Cotton Committee's Report, was addressed by Mr. J. R. Clynes, who announced that the Government had asked him to urge on the industry the importance of the measures proposed. Mr. Clynes said the industry as a whole should declare its willingness to apply those recommendations which were within the control of the industry itself.

A spokesman for the employers and workmen gave an assurance that the report would be most seriously considered.

Mr. Clynes, in reply, emphasised that the Government would do its best to meet any difficulties in the carrying out of the recommendations.

High Production Costs.

RUGBY, July 5. Important proposals for the rationalisation of the Lancashire cotton industry are made in the Report of the Government Committee of Enquiry published to-day.

The Committee recommend the use of cheaper raw material for spindles and high-rate spinning and high speed winding machinery. They find that the cost of production in Lancashire is substantially higher than among its competitors.

It is pointed out that in most cases reduction of cost could only be gradual and would require at every stage the closest and most cordial co-operation between employers and operatives for the manufacture of cheap standard lines, in which British goods have been so largely ousted from the Eastern markets.

Short-stapled Indian cotton, it is stated, has hitherto been but little used in Lancashire, where longer-stapled but more expensive American cotton has been almost exclusively preferred. In this way, Lancashire's competitors, some of whom have acquired great skill in the mixing of Indian and other cottons with American cotton, have secured an initial advantage by using cheaper cotton for their manufactures. (Continued at foot of next column.)

TIN OUTPUT RESTRICTION.

APPROVED BY NIGERIAN CHAMBER OF MINES.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, July 4. The Nigerian Chamber of Mines has endorsed the recommendation of the Tin Producers' Association in favour of a two months' shut-down. The Chamber further suggests that companies in Nigeria should restrict production during the next three months to one-third of their monthly production on the average quarterly basis.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST HONG KONG.

"God" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 6.

The Golden Text was: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, and his redeemer the Lord of hosts; and beside me there is no God" (Isa. 44: 6).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands. They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they shall wax old as doth a garment; and as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail" (Hebr. 1: 10-12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-existence. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as Spirit or Mind." (p. 331).

The industry requires a marketing system so organised as to secure the most economic methods. The Committee finds that the markets in which the Lancashire cotton industry has suffered most serious losses are those in the Far East, particularly India, China and Japan.

SERVICE TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED.

The s.s. Venezia, which was put on the Hong Kong-Canton run, and then changed to the Hong Kong-Macao run, has had to suspend its activities again.
